

The Inaugural Alex Macdonald Memorial Lecture

By

Professor Margaret Levi

- * Joint Professor of Politics - United States Study Centre, Sydney University
- * Bacharach Professor of International Studies - University of Washington
- * Former Harry Bridges Chair - Harry Bridges Centre for Labor Studies (HBCLS), UW

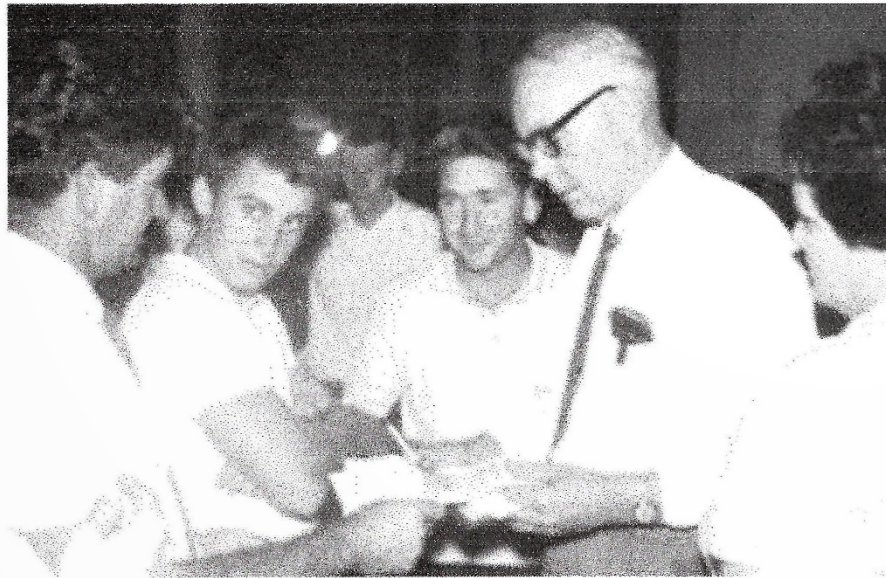

Professor Margaret Levi

<http://faculty.washington.edu/mlevi/>

With introductory talks by: Manfred Cross Alan Anderson Hughie Hamilton

Chair: Ron Monaghan (QCU General Secretary)

Alex Macdonald arranging bail for people arrested during the protests against the visit of Marshall Ky in January 1967.
Photo – Grahame Garner collection, Fryer Library

Alex Macdonald (1910 – 1969) It is 40 years since the death of Alex Macdonald: ironworker, trade union official, Communist, Secretary of TLC, negotiator, promoter of youth education and employment, historian, pacifist...

To commemorate his contribution to the union and progressive labour movements, BLHA will hold an annual lecture in his

When: Thursday 14 May 6pm for 6.30pm

Where: QCU – William Gallagher Auditorium

16 Peel Street

South Brisbane

Entry: $10 waged $8 unwaged

Enquiries Greg Mallory: gmallory@vtown.com.au